I'M LATE...I'M LATE...FOR A VERY IMPORTANT DATE!!!

Employers in California are reminded that effective last Friday (hence the "I'm late" comment) they were to begin posting their Annual Summary of Work Related Injuries and Illnesses as required by CalOSHA. Form 300 and 300-A require employers to track injuries and illnesses resulting in "loss of consciousness, restricted work activity or job transfer, days away from work, or medical treatment beyond first aid." Form 300 identifies both the individual and the specific cases and problems while Form 300-A removes the individual's identity, but includes a summary of the items which must be posted between February 1st and April 30th of the year following the tracking.

If you haven't done this yet, get busy ladies and gentlemen because you're late!!! Any employer who does not have access to CalOSHA Form 300 can contact me at The Employers' Council™ by clicking here and I will happily provide you with a copy of the required forms.

In other news, the Annual Update of Employment and Labor Laws has now been completed and seminars will be presented in the near future through a variety of venues including the Power Inn Alliance, and in partnership with an accountancy firm and an insurance broker. If you are interested in attending the Annual Update so that you can keep up on the changing employment and labor laws in both California and under the federal law, please contact me at The Employers' Council™ by clicking here or call me at the number listed.
